After a Third Party Advertiser (TPA) files a registration form, the news media and the public often wish to make contact with the TPA. The information contained in a Registration form is deemed to be a public record through s. 88(5) of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, as amended, and may be inspected by any person at the Municipal Clerk's Department at a time when the office is open. However, the media and members of the public may not wish to take the time to go to the office to view the information. They would prefer to obtain contact information by telephone or on the internet.

A TPA, wishing to establish a campaign profile, may find such contact to be of assistance. Therefore, to make this initial contact easier, a TPA authorizes the Municipal Clerk's Department to release telephone or email contact information. This could be in response to a specific request, or through the posting on the Municipal Elections website. There is no obligation on the part of a TPA to authorize the release of this contact information.
